

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Alaa Amr Ali Elfadil, who volunteered as a Host at the 5th Arab Forum of Science Media and Communication in 2025.

In her role, she was responsible for introducing speakers, guiding the audience through the agenda, and ensuring smooth transitions between sessions. She carried out these tasks with confidence, professionalism, and a positive attitude.

She showed great responsibility, flexibility, and the ability to adapt to the dynamic flow of a live event. Her clear communication skills and strong stage presence helped create a welcoming atmosphere for both speakers and attendees.

Based on her performance, I believe she has strong potential to succeed in media, communications, and event-related roles.

Sincerely,

Esraa Hosny
